

Jonny & Kayla

perform

"Here Comes the Sun"

Part of the Total Eclipse Experience

Vocalist Kayla Winslow grew up singing and performing with friends and family in her hometown of Chesapeake, Virginia. She attended the University of Virginia, majoring in Religious Studies and French Language, and continued to pursue private study of classical voice. Kayla enjoys practicing and performing many different music styles, from opera to rock and jazz. She is a vocalist for the U.S. Army Bands and has performed with them in Colorado, Texas, South Korea, Africa, and Europe.

Music artist Jonny Java was born and raised in the Bronx, NYC. He became friends with the guitar at age 6. He attended the La Guardia High School of Performing Arts in NYC and graduated from the Berklee College of Music in Boston, MA. Jonny spent 15 years performing worldwide on cruise ships and now plays guitar for the U.S. Army Band in San Antonio, TX. He also invented and patented a fingertip guitar slide called the BulletSlide.

Cave Without a Name Pavilion - April 8, 2024 - 2:30 pm